(CULTURAL TRAVEL EXPERIENCE)

Cultural Travel with Sisters Traveling Solo

When you book a cultural travel experience with Sisters Traveling Solo you support women-owned tour companies and small woman-owned businesses or charities whose mission it is to help women in the country we are visiting. Culturally-themed trip experiences focus on the local people, history and food while economically empowering the women who lend their service and expertise. The local tour partner is a native of the country we are visiting.

Country Overview

A blockbuster combination of sublime landscapes that will make you feel like you're on another planet, some of the best wildlife viewing on the continent, a host of fascinating desert-adapted plants and animals, and jaw-dropping natural wonders make Namibia a country you'll never forget.

Windhoek, Namibia (2-nights)

Windhoek is the capital of Namibia, in the country's central highlands. South of the city, the sprawling Heroes' Acre war memorial commemorates Namibia's 1990 independence.

Sossusvlei, Namibia (3-nights)

Sossusvlei is a salt and clay pan surrounded by high red dunes, located in the southern part of the Namib Desert, in the Namib-Naukluft National Park of Namibia. The name "Sossusvlei" is often used in an extended meaning to refer to the surrounding area.

Swakopmund, Namibia (2-nights)

Swakopmund is a coastal city in Namibia, west of the capital, Windhoek. Its sandy beaches face the Atlantic Ocean. Established by German colonists in 1892, the city's colonial landmarks include the Swakopmund Lighthouse and the Mole, an old sea wall.

Etosha National Park (3-nights)

Etosha National Park is a national park in northwestern Namibia and one of the largest national parks in Africa.
