Country Overview

Both Italy and Croatia are famous for their azure blue oceans, making them great destinations for beach holidays, combined with visits to pretty historical towns to soak up some history and the modern-day culture.

Rome, Italy (4-nights)

Rome, the “Eternal City,” brims with ancient history, from the Colosseum to the port of Ostia Antica to the majestic Vatican City and the Sistine Chapel. Because of its history, art, architecture, and beauty – and perhaps its gelato and pasta! – Rome is one of our most popular cities.

With its breathtaking buildings and monuments, incredible works of art, small-town charm, leisurely pace of life and world-renowned cuisine, the Eternal City is worth a visit at least once, though it would take a lifetime to see all it has to offer.

Split, Croatia (4-nights)

Split, the nucleus and biggest urban city of the Dalmatian Coast, portrays an exhilarating ambiance that imprints an unforgettable fondness and familiarity in any visitor's mind.

Split has options offered by the sea, the mountains and the national parks. Among the most popular day trips are visits to Plitvice Lakes, Krka Waterfalls and Kornati National Park. The combinations of a Split holiday are limitless.
