Country Overview

Thailand is a land of contrasts, where bustling city streets meet serene mountains and ancient traditions. From the lively capital of Bangkok, filled with glittering temples, colorful markets, and vibrant street life, to the peaceful northern city of Chiang Mai, surrounded by mountains and steeped in culture, Thailand offers travelers a rich tapestry of experiences. This journey allows you to immerse yourself in Thailand's flavors, spirituality, and natural beauty.

Bangkok (4-nights)

Bangkok, Thailand's capital, is a city of energy and contrasts. Here, centuries-old temples sit beside modern skyscrapers, while bustling markets thrive next to luxury malls. Highlights include the dazzling Grand Palace, the reclining Buddha at Wat Pho, and the riverside beauty of Wat Arun. Guests can cruise through the canals for a glimpse of traditional neighborhoods or explore Chinatown's food scene.

Chiang Mai (4-nights)

Chiang Mai offers a slower pace and a chance to connect deeply with Thailand's traditions. Nestled among mountains and rice paddies, this historic city is home to over 300 temples, including the mountaintop Wat Phra That Doi Suthep with sweeping views of the valley. Chiang Mai is also a hub for hands-on cultural experiences—from Thai cooking classes at organic farms to visiting artisan villages that produce silk, silver, and pottery.

Tentative Itinerary

DAY 1 - Arrival

Arrive at Bangkok Suvarnabhumi Airport, where you will be greeted and transferred to your hotel. After settling in, take some time to relax, explore the nearby surroundings, or enjoy a stroll along the Promenade des Anglais.

In the evening, meet your host and fellow travelers for a welcome dinner featuring regional dishes. This is the perfect opportunity to get to know your group and set the tone for the incredible week ahead.

Meal(s) Included: Dinner

Hotel Check-In: 3 PM local time.

DAY 2 - Bangkok City Experience

Begin your exploration of Bangkok at the colorful flower and vegetable market, then continue to Wat Pho to see the magnificent reclining Buddha. Cross the river to Wat Arun, the Temple of Dawn, one of Bangkok's most iconic landmarks with its glittering spires. Afterward, visit the Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew, home to the revered Emerald Buddha and Thailand's most sacred site.

End the day with a long-tail boat ride through Bangkok's canals, a relaxing way to see another side of the city.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast

DAY 3 - Railway & Floating Market Adventure

Travel beyond Bangkok to see rural life firsthand. Visit the Maeklong Railway Market, where vendors scramble to pull back their stalls as trains pass through. Then explore the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market, tasting fruit, boat noodles, and mango sticky rice from vendors paddling wooden boats.

Depending on the day, you may also see Tha Kha Floating Market, a traditional hidden gem. Along the way, stop at a coconut sugar farm before returning to Bangkok.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast

DAY 4 - Free Day in Bangkok

Spend the day discovering Bangkok at your own pace. Shop at Chatuchak Market, relax at a spa, take a river cruise, or enjoy rooftop dining. This day allows flexibility for guests to explore their personal interests.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast

DAY 5 - Fly to Chiang Mai

This morning, take a short flight from Bangkok to Chiang Mai, the cultural heart of northern Thailand. After checking into your hotel, enjoy time to relax or stroll nearby markets before joining the group for dinner. This evening meal will be your introduction to Chiang Mai's distinctive flavors and laid-back atmosphere, setting the tone for your northern adventure.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 6 - Temples of Chiang Mai

Begin the day at Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, Chiang Mai's most famous temple, perched high on a mountain with sweeping views over the city. Continue into the Old City to explore Wat Chedi Luang, an impressive historic stupa, and Wat Phra Singh, admired for its intricate Lanna architecture. Visit Wat Chiang Man, the oldest temple in Chiang Mai, before making your way to Wat Pha Lat, a peaceful forest temple hidden along the monk's trail. The tour also includes a stop at a Hmong Hill Tribe Village to learn about local culture and traditions.

End the day wandering through Warorot Market and the nearby Flower Market, where vibrant stalls overflow with spices, textiles, and fresh blooms.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast

DAY 7 - Thai Cooking Class

Visit the main local Thai market outside the city center before heading to an organic farm to learn about herbs and ingredients. Begin by cooking jasmine rice and sticky rice, then pound and prepare your own curry paste from scratch, customizing the spice level to your taste. Each participant will prepare a curry paste, curry dish, soup, stir-fry, noodle dish, and a sweet dessert, totaling six categories.

You'll make every dish yourself from start to finish, ensuring you can season to your own preference. Exclusive to the full-day class is a papaya salad tasting for everyone to enjoy.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast, Lunch/Cooking class

DAY 8 - Elephant Sanctuary & Sticky Waterfall

Start the day with a private transfer to an ethical elephant sanctuary. Learn about elephant care and conservation while helping to feed and bathe these gentle giants. After enjoying a Thai lunch that includes Pad Thai, continue to the famous Sticky Waterfall, where mineral-rich limestone allows you to climb safely up the cascading tiers. Along the way, your private guide and vehicle give you the flexibility to stop at local cafés, markets, or temples if you'd like.

Return to Chiang Mai in the evening for a special farewell dinner with your fellow travelers, celebrating the memories and connections made during your Thailand journey.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 9 - Depart Chiang Mai

After breakfast, transfer to Chiang Mai International Airport for your return flight home. Depart Thailand with unforgettable memories of its culture, cuisine, temples, and warm hospitality.

Meal(s) Included: Breakfast
